North Dakota Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics

Sponsor Recognition

Each fall, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics sponsors the world's largest meeting of food and nutrition experts — registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs), nutrition and dietetics technicians, registered (NDTRs), researchers, policymakers, health care providers and industry leaders attend the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo® to address key issues affecting the health of all Americans.

This year's educational program features exciting educational opportunities not available elsewhere. And the Expo features products and services from exhibiting companies showcasing the latest and greatest trends and offerings in food, nutrition and health.

FNCE® 2023 is in Denver — The Mile High City — with world-class attractions, natural wonders, a thriving arts scene, dozens of innovative and acclaimed restaurants and nightlife options galore!

The Sugar Association

Tuesday, September 26th 12 pm Central Time!

Everyone knows what sugar is. And, for many, there seems to be a bit of a love vs. fear relationship battle. There is so much about sugar and its role in the diet that many people aren't aware of. Facts will be presented that demystify this ingredient and empower people to make informed decisions about how best to incorporate sugar into their balanced diet. Please join Courtney Gain, PhD, RD, President and CEO of The Sugar Association for this FREE webinar! Register HERE!

ND Train offers free training series:

These trainings are available on ND Train. If you do not yet have an account, please follow these steps to create one.

Running a Best Practice Program: Increasing Sustainability of MNT and DSMES Services

“Running a Best Practice Program: Increasing Sustainability of MNT & DSMES Services” is a comprehensive learning series by diabetes billing expert Mary Ann Hodorowicz. The series covers the ‘ins-and-outs’ of business planning for Diabetes Self-Management Education and Support and Medical Nutrition Therapy programs. This learning opportunity is appropriate for anyone involved or interested in administering DSMES or MNT services.

North Dakota Health Equity Training Initiative

The training series comprises nine courses designed to equip healthcare professionals and providers with evidence-informed knowledge on health equity-related subjects. This initiative aims to provide valuable insight into working with underserved populations, identifying and addressing health inequalities, and delivering culturally appropriate services to individuals from diverse backgrounds.

Notice of Opportunity for NDAND Members

Are you interested in practicing in multiple states? The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has a draft proposal that would allow states to pursue a compact that would simplify requirements to practice in multiple states. To learn more, view this YouTube video or visit the website to read updates and Q&A.

FMAND would like to invite you to our Annual Fall Kick-Off Event on Thursday, September 28th from 5:30pm-8:00pm!

This will be a wonderful opportunity to network and an informational evening as we hear from Stephanie Severson, PA-C and Karla Lund, RD from Progress Weight Management. They will be speaking on current Weight Management Approaches and Intuitive Eating (providing a total of 1.5 CEU). A social hour and hors d'oeuvres will be provided!

Recording Available from All Member Webinar - Consumer Protection: Licensure, Telehealth and Reimbursement

Last week's complimentary webinar showcased the Academy's consumer protection and payment advocacy efforts. Speakers discussed advocacy efforts to ensure RDNs can practice at their level of competence, next steps in the exploration of the Dietitian Licensure Compact, opportunities and efforts to increase access to RDN services and MNT, and resources available to support members and the nutrition and dietetics profession. Use this link to access the recorded webinar.

Policy and Advocacy Town Hall on September 19

Academy Policy Leaders: Register today for the second town hall of the year on Tuesday, September 19, from 2-3:30 p.m. (Eastern Time). As a reminder, each town hall provides an update on current policy and advocacy initiatives and should be attended by all policy leaders. Reports will be shared from each affinity group to help you become familiar with important policy issues and provide an opportunity to answer questions. Plan in advance how you will share the information with your affiliate, DPG or MIG.

Let your voice be heard! Complete Action Alerts to let your legislators know what policies you are passionate about.
